

14. Mead Paper. Comments only:

The Mead paper is a great opportunity for students to conduct an independent study on a current civil engineering topic. Many regional conferences use the topic for their technical paper presentation as well which gives the student multiple opportunities to show off their work.

15. ASCE National Civil Engineering Event. Comments only:

The ASCE national conference is an excellent opportunity to learn about current issues in civil engineering and network. I encourage you to get involved and take to your advisor about potential funding opportunities.

16. Practitioner/Faculty Advisor Training Workshop. Comments only:

If your faculty/practitioner advisor has not participated recently in this workshop, I encourage them to make it a priority. They can benefit a lot from the experience and bring back new ideas to the chapter/club.
