The Engineering Graduate Student Advisory Council presents an e-seminar for engineering students

Industry Experiences with Engineering Graduate Degrees

Tuesday, February 23, 2016 at 5:00 p.m. in 1109 Engineering Hall

Amy Bartak, telecom engineer at Burns & McDonnell
Degrees: BS in computer science, MS in electrical engineering (both KState)
Hometown: Overland Park, KS
Duties: Manage multiple telecommunications projects for an electric utility in the Midwest to build out their fiber optic network and comply with the latest NERC CIP requirements

Kathryn Davis, merchandise logistics manager at Walmart, Inc. (Sam’s Club) in Bentonville, AR
Degrees: BS and MS in industrial engineering (both K-State)
Hometown: Manhattan, KS
Duties: Responsible for supporting and consulting with all dry goods and beverage buyers at Sam’s Club as it relates to the supply chain. Determine the lowest cost supplier for private branded items, determine the lowest cost and most efficient channel for items to flow through and when to order.

Jeffrey Hancock, vice-president/engineering division manager at SMH Consultants in Manhattan, KS
Degrees: BS and MS in civil engineering (both K-State)
Hometown: Haysville, KS
Duties: Manage the professional services that SMH provides which include: water distribution and treatment, wastewater collection and treatment, transportation, environmental, aviation, land development and storm water services across three offices.