Today’s Seminar
National Gypsum Company

Wiley McMillan is currently the Kansas City Territory Manager for National Gypsum Company and is a charter member of National Gypsum’s Certified Presenter program for the architectural and contractor communities. He has been a member of The Construction Specifications Institute (CSI) since 1994. Wiley has held several positions including President of the Kansas City Chapter in 2000 and served on the CSI Certification Committee from 2008-2010. The topic of Wiley’s presentation is an overview of what gypsum is, how gypsum board is made, its fire-resistant qualities, and various innovative products and their applications.
